

PEACE CORPS PREP PROGRAM

RECOMMENDED MAJORS/MINORS:

Accounting, Business, Communications, Economics, Math, Political Science, and Sports Management.

You can earn your Peace Corps Prep Certificate by taking classes in your major, fulfilling your Global and General Education requirements* plus the following: Foreign Language, Career Development and Leadership, and/just 50 hours service or an internship (internship is already required of Communication and Sport Management majors)

PEACE CORPS PREP REQUIREMENTS:

Three of the following courses with 3+ credits each:

Accounting (AC) classes	CA340	PS231
Business Admin (MA) classes	CA341	PS234
Economics (EC) classes	CA350	PS333
Marketing (MC) classes	CA361	PS348
Math (MT) 131+ classes	CA364	SM233
CA131	PC233	SM236
CA231	PC332	SM 430
CA330	PC339	SY335

50 hours of experience fulfilled through any of the following items:

- Internship related to business, computer training, web design, marketing (2 credits or 1 credit + 8 hours)
- 50 volunteer/non-credit internship hours related to business, computer training, web design, marketing

Foreign Language:

All coursework may be substituted by passing a proficiency test at the intermediate level.

- Latin America placement (Spanish): Strong intermediate proficiency or Two 200 level courses in Spanish
- West Africa placement (French): Intermediate proficiency in French or other romance language or One 200 level course in French or other romance language.
- Everywhere else: Proficiency in language of target country or similar language helpful. Study in a foreign language required for certificate or 4 credits of college level foreign language.

Intercultural Competence

Required GL425 class, plus two of the following courses.

Note: One course may be substituted by 50 additional service hours working with new Americans/immigrants in the community, teaching in diverse schools, or volunteering abroad.

GL125	PS234	SM333
GL335	PS333	SY237
HI160	PY336	SY330
HI351	RP231	SY335
PC233	RP236	TH231
PC332	RP239	WS131
PC339	RP330	WS350
PS231	RP333	Any study abroad experience

Professional and Leadership Development

- Approved resume (by Career Services) and Interview Workshop OR College to Career Class
- Participation in Peace Corps Prep Club where you will develop at least one leadership experience and discuss it thoroughly.

*This is based on a review of the 2015–2016 Catalog. Check with your advisor to ensure you are meeting all your major/minor requirements.

Choose GL classes, Social Science and Humanities requirements from the Intercultural options. Spanish classes = GL and HU.